In the heart of the Janiculum, inside the historic Villino Sabbatini of the 20s, with its façade embellished with frescoes in Art Nouveau and Neo-Baroque style, stands this unique residence, designed by the renowned architect and interior designer Annalisa Mauri. Modern lines, elegant volumes and a perfect play of natural light with refined living spaces. The color palette, inspired by Le Corbusier and Art Nouveau, enhances the perfect connection between interiors and exteriors. Large windows and a secret garden guarantee privacy and tranquility in the heart of the Eternal City. The property is spread over two levels for a total of about 250 square meters, plus a large garden directly connected to the living area. The layout is well balanced between living and sleeping areas, with two double bedrooms, one with a large walk-in closet, two living rooms, a kitchen and three bathrooms. A perfect combination of contemporary architecture, history and nature.
